

CURTIS M. PHILLIPS CENTER MAINSTAGE PRODUCTIONS

'In partnership with the UFPA'

ASPIRE! Oct. 26 A jaw-dropping program based on the UF course, 'What is the Good life'. From Balanchine's masterpiece APOLLO to the exciting CONSTELLATIONS to music by resident composer Stella Sung with breathtaking images from the Hubble telescope. Sponsored in part by the UF Provost's Office and UFPA.

THE NUTCRACKER Dec. 15-17 It's just not the holidays without the Nutcracker. The all-time family favorite with beautiful dancing, sets and costumes. Sheer magic! Sponsored by Cox Communications.

L'AMOUR - Feb. 14 LOVE is at the heart of this show when a comic 'everyman' finds the light of his life in a French café. A perfect Valentine's night out for you and your loved ones. HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY! Sponsored by Dharma Endowment.

The RING – April 7 The UF Symphony Orchestra joins DANB in a fantasy story ballet of Love, Romance, Greed and Power based on Wagner's Ring cycle. 'Rugby', a rowdy ballet featuring our athletic male dancers, Welson Tremura's passionate 'Guitarra Latina' and pianist Kevin Sharpe's lyric style complete this stunning program created by choreographers Kim Tuttle and Judy Skinner. Sponsored by Alliance Credit Union.
